"Reporter 1 raises his hand and asks Lestrade: 'Detective Inspector, how can suicides be linked?' Lestrade answers: 'Well[...]. Reporter 1 interrupts and states: 'But you can't have serial suicides'..."

P17 recall transcript

"...so then we get the press conference and the guy saying that he thinks that these suicides are linked and then a reporter says but how could suicides be linked that doesn't make any sense..."

Anderson, from where he is casually leaning against the doorway continues: "rache". It's German for "revenge" [...]. While he is speaking, Sherlock has walked quickly towards the door and now begins to close it in Anderson's face...."

...

"...he turns back to her and asks: 'hey, um... do you ever get any free time?' Anthea smiles while typing on her phone and sarcastically says: 'Oh yeah, lots' [...] The car drives away and John walks across the pavement to the front door of 221B..."

"...he says to the woman who is now seated on the left hand side, 'do you have any free time?' and she kinda smirks and says 'no, does it seem like I have free time?' She's always on her phone. So then he gets out and is back at 221 Baker Street ..."
